PRESENTS

IDENTIFICATION, CARE AND PRESERVATION OF OLD PHOTOGRAPHS

by Linda A. Ries

Having a shoebox of family photos is a wonderful thing, but who are these people? What to do with photos that are sad looking and how to keep them from deteriorating further? This presentation by historian Linda Ries will help answer some of these questions! You may even bring one or two photos for consultation.

Linda A. Ries is a retired archivist from the Pennsylvania State Archives, part of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, where she worked for thirty-five years. She was responsible for care of the Archives' photo collections.

Linda is currently the editor of Pennsylvania History: A Journal of Mid-Atlantic Studies, the scholarly journal of the Pennsylvania Historical Association. She is also Historian/Archivist of the Civic Club of Harrisburg and serves on the Board of the New Cumberland Public Library.
